

Breakup Songs

When you say it's all over

Hell yeah anyway

There's that grin

Don't make me fall in love with you again

Not all at once

Bad kids to the front

You don't know what song I could sing inside

Zero seconds pause

Now I am going dancing if you would care to join me

Today I show her that part is over

Mothball the fleet

You've been selected

Prepare yourself

I now pronounce you earth animal

All aboard your new home in the night sky

All aboard your new home far away

So I pronounce you

Flower

More than I

Let it go

Leave it all behind

To fly or not to fly

Don't pay attention when they tell you

The trouble with candyhands

I can tell bad boy

I allow you one phone call

Then you bring me flowers

We do parties

Thus spake the jingletron

Thus spake the jangletron

The old love machine

The new love machine

I am coming to you from a speaker deep inside

The autojubulator is free of charge

Mario's flaming whiskers III out now

There you go

Control

Drop or kick heavenly

Oh kumon

Fete d'adieu

I declare the war over anymore

Ready for a laugh

Ready to be tough as a robot on the dancefloor

A muscle in the heart
